Dear Hiring Manager:

I was very intrigued and excited to receive notice of your open position for a Digital Designer to join a team of digital professionals re-inventing the whole Green Flag digital experience for customers, people and partners based in Bromley. I am hopeful that you will be open to discussing the job with me in an interview.

My recent background has involved work as a front end web developer and designer – a position that has provided me with hands-on experience build responsive web pages using HTML, CSS, Javascript, JQuery, GitHub, Photoshop, AdobeXD other Adobe products. I have been responsible work on multiple projects which includes fully functional responsive web design and optimize website.

In addition to my record of experience in technology and communications, I would also bring to the position an equally skill set that includes technology and workflow software. My attached resume provides a more complete picture of those skills.

Again, I am excited to have the opportunity to apply for your company's position and am confident that I have the communications, skills service, and problem-resolution skills that DIRECT LINE GROUP needs. Please feel free to contact me at 07542644694 to schedule an interview. I appreciate your time and look forward to discussing this opportunity in greater detail at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Dario Amade
